Editorial

Welcome to Clarion 147. I was under the impression that there would be a bit of a lull after the JK, but it seems just as busy as ever at the moment. In just the last three weeks we have had the final Schools League fixture (of which more on Page 10), a Spring O by Tim Evans at Valley Gardens, our Level C Yorkshire Urban League event at Ripon, an Army event and the next Spring O in Knaresborough (by Allen Banister) on the same day and now we have big the Level B CompassSport Cup Heat on Saturday at Timble. So much for a rest! Like me, you might think you need a break, so why not consider one of the summer multi-day events as a bit of an adventure holiday this summer? There is always the White Rose on our doorstep in August, but before then in July it is the turn of Wales to host their Croeso 5 day event, which is ever popular. If you are feeling really adventurous there are lots of great events overseas too - why not give it a go?

PATELEY PRATTLINGS

Some of you may know that I do a bit of coaching at Pateley Leisure Centre where as well as taking a group of experienced seasoned runners I also lead 'Zero to 5k' courses for beginners, aiming to get them from the couch to parkrun in 10 weeks. After that they go off in all sorts of fascinating directions. Of the 25 that have completed the course at least 15 are still regular parkrun runners, some have joined running clubs where they've been most welcome, several are running Race for Life, at least one will be in the Great North Run, while it looks like one might just become an orienteer, having come along to our events at Ripon and Jacob Smith Park. They've found that running has given them a new social outlet as well as the obvious health benefits and the confidence and self-esteem that come from their new activity. I know from personal experience that there's a long learning curve to becoming a half-competent orienteer but I'm sure that with support the adult beginner can soon make their mark.

One of my earlier graduates from the Zero to 5k course twisted my arm to have a go at the Yorkshire Warrior, a mud and obstacles event held at the Yorkshire Showground and Ruddings Park. I'd always been dismissive of this sort of event but here was a modestly priced one right on my doorstep with a bunch of friends I knew, the only snag being that it was less than a week after my outing to the London Marathon. I have to admit that it was great fun. I suspect that I was not only the oldest in our team of 10 but possibly the oldest in the entire event and hence I received a few patronising looks from the macho gym-bunnies in the organised warm-up as I wore my Pateley Panthers T-shirt. Off we went, through the familiar beck that we use on our Hookstones event, some already mincing around as they sought to keep dry, a climb up to the railway viaduct once used by Graham on a 'stealth' evening run, then through more muddy pools and over or under several artificial obstacles. Then came a long chest-deep pool which froze parts I daren't mention in a family magazine (did I say I was the only male in our team) and a zigzag run up and down more muddy banks. Studs are barred by the race rules lest you injure somebody else but trail shoes worked very well.

Up to now it had all seemed like the experience you'd get from a regular day's orienteering indeed Mulgrave Woods at this year's Northern Champs had been just as wet and physical. However I've never orienteered through a 700 metre long railway tunnel, our next obstacle. Sensibly there were a few lights at tricky points and it was declared a 'no running' zone but it proved hazardous nevertheless. More obstacles, back through the beck and then we're having a timed sprint up the old golf course, all familiar territory for me and a chance to be smug as I passed lots of the rugby club heroes. We finish with a climb up and over a scaffold tower and a final mudslide back down the hill on wet tarpaulins which I admit I rather enjoyed. Would I do it again – probably. But the thought kept returning, this bit's like Tockholes, this is like the pits at Tankersley, etc. There can be no doubt that a hard orienteering course can provide every bit as good a physical workout as an artificial event, then there's the mental challenge too. One thing the organised obstacle events bring is the ability to work together as a team and to support each other, an opportunity that in orienteering comes only from the enthusiasm shown at relays or at CompassSport Cup. Maybe we need to be creative and think outside the box about a format for one of our summer or autumn weeknight events that builds in a team competition.

Keep an eye out for some innovative thinking from Ebor's Steve Whitehead who is planning an indoor orienteering event at a multi-storey school in York. Yes, indoors, a first for the UK I believe. Credit too to our own Chris Dicken who devised our familiar LampO events for winter evenings; that format has now been copied not only by Ebor but also by the mighty Forth Valley Orienteers and if it's good enough for Graham Gristwood and Kris Jones, the top two UK ranked orienteers, then it must be good. You saw it here at Claro first folks.

Open Adventure 2015/16 Series – Nathan and Adrian Parker

We have competed in 5 out of the 6 races in the series over the winter from November to April – and are pleased to have held on to second place in the male pairs category for the second year in a row (there are solo and pair categories – male, female and mixed pairs as well).

Open Adventure races are 5 hour score events with run and mountain bike controls, all with different point values (which you do not know until you start). Competitors can either run or cycle first and then transition. So like a biathlon – but where you choose the route and the split between the two disciplines. There are 350 bike points and 250 run – but to do well you need to be doing well in both the run and bike. If you are late back you have penalties applied to your score at an accelerating rate the later you are.

Each team’s top 3 scores count towards the series competition (in each race you achieve a score which is the percentage your score represents of the winning score. We started the season well and ended it badly (we were very late back) - but we had done sufficiently well to hold on to the podium place and win another plaque each – which make very good book ends(!)

At the end of the season the top 10 of the male pairs leader board was:

We had a good race and 2nd place at Muker/Keld in Swaledale in November in strong wind and rainy conditions. In January, we just made it to Slaidburn in the Forest of Bowland, having driven through snow and floods in Yorkshire, to come 4th in cold, but largely dry, Lancashire.

In February, we drove - or rather slid - our way through a couple of inches of snow along un-gripped roads to reach Blanchland, County Durham/Norhumbria, to have a race in wonderful snowy conditions. We came 3rd despite a jammed chain on Nathan's bike that needed radical trail side surgery to remove a large section of chain jammed in the rear wheel spokes.

We had a reasonable race to the East of Ullswater in March, coming 5th, but with a route choice that got the run and bike balance wrong. In April we had a race in glorious spring weather. It was a nice day out and we saw a lot of the moors around Todmorden – but more than the time permitted. With nearly 30 minutes of penalties we lost nearly half our points.

Next season Nathan is likely to be at University – the plan is to replace him with Luke!

P.S. Jemima and her friend Jo have also competed in four of the series, but that's another story...

British Orienteering Membership Fees and Levy

Some of you might be aware of an important debate going on at the higher levels of our sport concerning funding. It has important implications for all of us and the sport as a whole, so in case you want to know more, below is a summary of what has happened to date.

The key driver for this is that the significant amount of funding that British Orienteering receives from Sport England is set to stop (or at least be drastically reduced) from March 2017. This means that British Orienteering must either find further funding from elsewhere or operate with significantly less money. There have been wide ranging discussions about what British Orienteering should do for the sport as well as discussions about how funding might be changed. It is also fair to say that there are some quite strong views about British Orienteering, including both what they should do and how well they are currently doing.

You may not know that British Orienteering, as our national governing body, is actually a set up as a not for profit limited company. As such there is a Board of Directors and an Annual General Meeting, which is usually held on the evening of the first day of the JK. There was a proposal raised at the AGM in Leeds this year relating to the funding issue, but the Board withdrew it at the meeting. Reproduced below are the proposal and then an update from Mike Hamilton (Chief Executive) on 12 May 16.

Proposal 3: Membership and Levy fees 2017

That, for the 2017 membership year, the British Orienteering membership fee, club affiliation fee and levy be set as follows:

- Senior member – £15.00
- Junior member – £5.00
- Levy per senior – equivalent event participant – £1.35
- Club affiliation fee – £50.00
- Student club affiliation fee – £10.00

Proposed: The Board of Directors

Supporting Statement

Membership and levy fees are British Orienteering's main source of non-grant, non-conditional income. Over the last 10 years the funds raised have stayed relatively level with income being £170k in 2005, £199k in 2010 and £180k in 2015.

This income is vital in paying for the services that British Orienteering provide to members and to act as the governing body of sport for orienteering which includes many of the behind-the-scenes costs of administering and running the sport.

The Sport England funding period ends in March 2017 and the funding currently subsidises the core activities of British Orienteering by approximately £120k per year. This subsidising of governing bodies of sport including British Orienteering is likely to end or be significantly reduced in March 2017. Consequently, increased income will be required if British Orienteering is to continue to operate across its areas of responsibility. Of course, efforts to reduce costs wherever possible and to explore alternative sources of income to supplement the essential funding we receive from our members and participants will continue.

After a number of years of the cost of membership being unchanged, the Board believe it is essential that the membership fee be increased. The increase in levy from £1.25 to £1.35 should also ensure participants play their part in funding British Orienteering and the Board consider this to be the fairest way of distributing the cost of running the governing body across participants.

Although these increases in Membership Fees are significant, members will note that this follows a significant reduction in membership fees that was agreed at the 2012 AGM for 2013 onwards. Prior to then, membership fees were £22.00 and £4.75 for National Seniors and Juniors respectively.

The Board have considered the changes to funding criteria and ask for your support in ensuring that British Orienteering can continue to fulfil its responsibilities to its members and affiliated clubs as well as the wider responsibilities to the development of the sport. The Board would like to see a position where the core activities are self-funded and not reliant on government funding.

UPDATE from Mike Hamilton on 12 May 2016

You may have been wondering where the Board are in progressing this matter. The Board held a meeting on Wednesday 6 April 2016 to discuss how this matter should be progressed. The minutes of the meeting have now been published for those interested.

In brief there was a discussion about whether holding an EGM is the best way forward and the when will be the most appropriate time to hold an EGM. The lead-in time required for a general meeting, for notifying the membership etc., makes this quite challenging. Potential opportunities to hold the EGM include during Croeso and the Compass Sport Cup Final. Ultimately it was agreed that the Club & Association Conference, to be held on Saturday 29 October 2016, is probably the most appropriate opportunity to stage the EGM.

Factors affecting this decision included:

- Needs to be time for a 'proper' consultation with members, clubs and associations.
- CSC is a 'closed' event and people often want to depart from the event fairly quickly, possibly using coaches for transport – not sure sufficient numbers would be prepared, or able, to stay for an AGM.
- Club & Association Conference could be thrown open to members, encouraging those interested to attend.
- Time is required to encourage more members to use their vote.
- It was also agreed that there should be a wide consultation with association, clubs and members.

A small group was established to develop the options and supporting documents for the consultation in time for the Board to agree them at the June Board meeting. This group has met and papers are currently being prepared for the Board to discuss and agree prior to the consultation commencing.

There are more details available in various places on the BO website, and no doubt there will be more news as the decisions unfold in what is a difficult time for our sport.

The First (and the Last?) Claro Harrogate Schools Orienteering League - Jemima Parker

Don't worry - we do plan to continue with the league, but we might well change a few things, including the name!

The first Claro Harrogate Schools Orienteering League (or CHSOL for short) took place this season over six Saturday afternoons, which were roughly monthly between November and May, although with a month off in March because of the JK. In total, 61 children have taken part, representing 18 local schools, and aged between 6 and 15. They completed over 200 runs in total.

It has been very encouraging to see so many young people come and try out the sport, with several families who were new to orienteering coming regularly. Well done to all those who participated, particularly the age category champions and those from the champion schools of St Aidan's (secondary) and Oatlands (primary). Prize giving will take at the Club Picnic on 12th June in Pannal.

The league used school year age classes, although not all were contested. The class champions are.

Class	Name	School
B4	Oliver McAllister	Darley
B5	Oliver Ellul	Pannal
B6	Ewan Reid	Oatlands
B7	Luke Fry	St Aidans
B9	William Wallace	St Aidans
B10	Matthew Rochester	King James
G4	Isla Reid	Oatlands
G5	Anna Rosie	Aspin Park
G6	Eve Whitaker	Oatlands
G7	Alexis Whitaker	Harrogate Grammar
G8	Lois Parker	St Aidans
Parent	Stephen Fry	not any more!

The League started and finished with events at the Valley Gardens, with the other venues being Hookstone Woods, the Pinewoods, Killinghall Country Park (Jennyfields) and Conyngham Hall Gardens. These were all reasonably small, safe and accessible areas for beginners to find their way around. We had the usual range of British orienteering weather and running conditions: strong winds at Hookstone; freezing at Killinghall; torrential rain in the Pinewoods; sunshine and showers at Conyngham; and sodden ground Valley Gardens in November, but brilliant, warm sunshine in May.

At each League event there were 4 courses: White, Yellow, Orange and Long Orange, with the various age classes mapped to those courses, although it was encouraging to see quite a few having a go at a second course after their scoring run. Many thanks to the planners: David, Vince, Linda, Liz and Ruth [and Jemima! - Ed] and to the additional helpers of Tim, Richard, Sue, Mike, Allan and Andy without whom the League would not have been possible. It made a real difference to have lots of assistance, both getting novices (both children and parents) started, and in sharing the thrill of having made it round at download!

We have had a lot of fun and plan to be back in the autumn with another Juniors League, but it may have a few changes and a different, catchier title – suggestions welcome!

Newsletters - Editor's Note

As some of you know, I will no longer be able to take part in orienteering on medical grounds, at least for the next few years. I plan to remain with the club and continue to help out at events, but I will be spending more time on other activities and my view is that the news role needs to be done by someone who is active in the sport. There are therefore two opportunities coming up between now and the AGM in September:

- Clarion Editor: This involves a brief period of activity every two months. The task is to encourage relevant articles from club members and other sources, combine them using basic word processing skills into a short document and publish, including a small number of printed paper copies.
- Weekly Newsletter Editor: This involves putting together a short newsletter using a simple online system that sends an email to subscribers. It is really easy to use and the process only takes about 20-30 minutes once a week (usually on a Tuesday).

In both cases I'll provide a full handover and ongoing support as needed. It is a good opportunity to put something back into your club, so if you are interested or want to know more, please either grab me at an event, call or email me.

Orienteering Quiz

As we have been a little short of competitions in the Clarion of late, below is a short 10 question quiz for your entertainment and to test your orienteering knowledge. Answers to the Editor in any convenient format so long as it is legible. Judge's decision is final (even if you are right, have more experience than the judge and/or you live in the Lake District!). The winner will be announced in the next Clarion and receive a mystery prize (even I don't know what it is yet). Good luck!

1. The IOF map symbol for an impassible cliff is a thick black line, usually with a series of thinner black tick lines along it. What do the tick lines represent?
2. On a 1:15,000 map, what distance on the ground would equate to 15mm on the map?
3. What is the maximum allowable distance between controls on a Yellow course?
4. On a standard orienteering map it is conventional to find white and three shades of green to indicate runnability in the forest. The mid green colour ("difficult to run") represents what percentages of running speed that should be achievable?
5. What is the lowest number control code that a control can have?
6. There are two electronic punching systems commonly in use at orienteering. SportIdent (SI) is the most common. What is the other one?
7. What does the following control description mean in full?

8. Claro currently has 127 members. What is the biggest age class represented in that number?
9. Where was the JK Sprint held in 2009?
10. On a 1:5,000 map, what is the closest allowable distance between two controls placed on similar features?

CLARO Annual Dinner 2016

As you will no doubt be aware the CLARO Annual Dinner was originally scheduled to take place earlier in the year, but as so many of you were unavailable, particularly with the club's commitments to the JK, it was decided to reschedule and also to rethink the event so that more club members could attend. In particular, we would like to welcome more junior members to attend the event with their families.

So reserve your places for Saturday 18th June 2016 at The George Carvery in Wormald Green. There will be an excellent choice on the menu, available at a very favourable price.

The carvery, which will include a dessert and coffee or tea will be £15.00 for adults and £6.95 for juniors. Carvery options will include beef, turkey, pork, chicken, fish, sausages, pie, and vegetarian/gluten free choices. All the trimmings will be available to add to your dish, including unlimited vegetable selection and Yorkshire pudding!

All the meats are supplied from local farmers through the legend that is Ken Bland of Ripon. We have a private room reserved, but just for your information there is a small playground and a games room to entertain any younger ones in the family. You can also easily get the 36 bus from Harrogate or Ripon if you don't want to drive.

Reserve your place by contacting either Arthur or Christine. See you at The George, Ripon Road, Wormald Green, at 6.30pm for 7.00pm on SATURDAY 18th June for our 2016 Annual Dinner.
