

Orienteering in the Heart of North Yorkshire

Claro Orienteering Club

Child and Vulnerable Adult Protection Policy

Sport can and does have a powerful and positive influence on people - especially young people and vulnerable adults. Not only can it provide opportunities for enjoyment and achievement; it can also develop valuable qualities such as self-esteem, leadership and teamwork. Claro Orienteering Club committed to ensuring that all young people and vulnerable adults who participate in orienteering have a positive experience in as safe an environment as possible.

As a club affiliated to British Orienteering Claro Orienteering Club has agreed to abide by the British Orienteering Child Welfare Policy and Procedures. These have been adopted in accordance with Appendix B. A full copy of the policy can be found at:

Responsibilities

Claro Orienteering Club will:

- Accept the moral and legal responsibility for implementing procedures to provide a duty of care for young people and vulnerable adults, to safeguard their well-being and to protect them from abuse;
- Respect and promote the rights, wishes and feelings of young people;
- Recruit, train and supervise their employees, volunteers and other workers so as to adopt best practice to safeguard and protect young people from abuse, and themselves against allegations;
- Require staff and volunteers to adopt and abide by the British Orienteering Child Welfare Policy and Procedures which incorporate the British Orienteering Code of Ethics and Conduct;
- Respond appropriately to any complaints about poor practice or allegations of abuse.

Club Welfare Officer

The club will appoint a Club Welfare Officer who will act as a first point of contact for any person in orienteering at a club level who has a concern about safeguarding the welfare of children and vulnerable adults. They will assist the club in developing and promoting an environment inclusive of, and friendly to, young people.
