Comments:

Thanks to everyone who came along this evening, the weather wasn't kind but everyone seemed to enjoy themselves, especially warming up afterwards!

I received a few comments about ambiguity in a few of the lampposts, I did try to ensure they were precise but I understand so I've been very lenient in which numbers were accepted :)

Everyone seemed to enjoy the map, quite an interesting area. I've attached it here for those that couldn't make the event: -

Well done to Quentin for the emphatic victory, Hopefully I will see you all at Plumpton on Sunday!
